The Public Lands.

In Tuesday's edition of this journal appeared a communication highly suggestive of useful thought. The first idea is that the most profound ignorance pervades all classes of the community respecting the resources, and more especially the agricultural resources, of the Colony. Repeated allusion has been made in these columns to the fact that even this by no means extensive Island is still for the most part a sort of terra incognita, — that, beyond the mere fringes of it, comparatively nothing is really known. But it is to another phase of this ignorance that we would more particularly advert. Although the immense sweeps of rich prairie and delta lands on the Lower Fraser have been known for a full decade, have been the subject of frequent newspaper articles, and have, to some slight extent been taken up by thrifty settlers who are rapidly tending to affluence, yet a prominent and intelligent member of the principal community has, to his evident amazement, just discovered the fact! How many are there in the Colony who know, and who knowing believe, that there is between the Mouth of the Fraser and the town of Hope a sufficiency of open land of the very richest kind, and for the most part ready for the plough, to furnish Homesteads for ten to fifteen thousand families? Yet such is an undeniable fact. In thus singling out the country drained by the Lower Fraser, it must not be inferred that this region possesses a monopoly of such land. It is only selected as a convenient illustration of the general subject. Nor should it be inferred that our correspondent of Tuesday is, as far as relates to the subject in hand, ignorant above all dwellers in the Colony; for quite the contrary is the fact. His case is merely taken to illustrate that of hundreds more. The next, and, perhaps, the most practical idea presented to the mind is the utter inadequacy of existing organization, or, perhaps, it would be more consonant with fact to say the total absence of any organization for conducting the would-be settler to a desirable Homestead. A new comer needs direction, if not encouragement; and we must be permitted to say, what is really nothing new, that there does not appear to exist in the Lands Department the means adequate for that purpose. We fear that we are quite justified in saying that many a valuable settler has been lost to the colony just because there was no means of discovering a suitable Homestead, although there is, in reality, no scarcity of the most desirable and inviting land awaiting settlement. It will be within the recollection of some of our readers that, during last session of the Legislative Council, an effort was made to obtain a select Committee for the purpose of enquiring into the management of the Lands and Works Department, with a view of making such suggestions as might tend to increase the efficiency thereof. The attempt was defeated by an overwhelming vote, a result which we cannot but think was chiefly owing to misapprehension in regard to the spirit by which the supporters of the resolution were animated. The head of the Department, while personally not objecting to the enquiry, opposed it upon general principles, claiming that the movement implied something wrong in the Department, and that, as a matter of principle, it would never do to admit a precedent which would read any and every public department liable to become the subject of enquiry, upon a mere resolution of the House. That there was some force in the objection must be admitted, and that the attempt was not made in the wisest possible way we will not deny; yet, feeling, as we do, that the sole desire was to promote the public interest, and to do it with as little unpleasantness as possible, we must ever regret that the majority who voted to throw out the resolution altogether did not assist the minority in so modifying and amending the mode of procedure so as to enable all to unite in one common effort to render the administration of the most important public department more adapted to the wants of the country. There was no intention, at least on the part of a majority of those whose vote were recorded with the eyes on the resolution in question, to find fault with persons. It was the system that they desired to improve; and every week's experience only tends to show how much the system needs improvement. In that Department should be exhibited a panoramic view, so to speak, of every district which may be partially settled or inviting settlers, in indicating the lots taken up and those open for preemption or purchase, together with the fullest possible information respecting the character of the land both occupied and unoccupied, and, generally, all such information as would enable the intending settler to come to an intelligent conclusion of a sufficiently definite nature to warrant the trouble and expense of a journey to whatever locality might appear to promise the greatest advantage. And even then it is questionable whether it would not be well that he should be furnished with a guide; for it must never be forgotten that those settlers are worth from one thousand to fifteen hundred dollars a piece to the colony. Such information, it is greatly to be feared the Department does not now possess the means of imparting. In truth the circumstances under which the intending settler is sent out are such as to render a hunt for land in British Columbia too much like sending a ship to sea without a rudder or compass, or, to use a still more homely illustration, like a search for a needle in a haystack. This question of adjusting the administration of the public lands to the wants of the colony loses none of its importance in view of Confederation, inasmuch as the right to deal with these lands will not be transferred to Ottawa.

"Present Aspect of Cariboo."

Under this heading the Sentinel of the 20th has a sensible and hopeful article. A falling off in the aggregate output is admitted; but it is claimed that the gross yield of the mines is not the true gauge of assured prosperity. The deep diggings of the present, with their steadier yield, and the greater fixedness imparted to population must be regarded as more than an equivalent for the fabulous strikes of by gone days; while the disposition to bring the forces of science and capital to bear upon ground and ledge hitherto untouched gives promise of better times in the not distant future. There can be no doubt about the correctness of this view. If those diggings which yielded a fortune in a week had their advantages they, had their disadvantages too. While they lasted all was feverish unrest, and men ran to and fro looking for 'Aladdin dirt' were unwilling to bestow their labor upon ground that would not give fabulous returns. Thus everything was unsettled, and the great masses were, as a matter of course, unemployed. It took time and the stern teaching of adversity to bring a people so dissipated and excited, down to moderate ideas and common earnings; and it is a matter of no surprise that all were not apt scholars. Yet everyone must see that the condition of things existing in what are falsely regarded as the halcyon days of Cariboo, although resulting in individual enrichment, could not contribute to general and permanent well-being. Ten thousand dollars suddenly put into the hands of a lucky individual miner was very apt to be carried off, leaving the Colony so much poorer; but that sum in the hands of ten or, better still, twenty miners must relatively benefit many, with a prospect of their remaining in the country. Those were not, therefore, the best days for the Colony when every California steamer carried away its quota of lucky miners with their ten, twenty, fifty, one hundred, and even two hundred thousand dollars a piece. It is now, when the gold miner consumes for the most part the productions of the country, and when the masses are taking out wages and upwards, that the development of our mines really contribute to permanent prosperity. It is questionable whether in earlier times their development did not tend to colonial impoverishment. Every interest is now upon a better basis, and we quite concur in the view put forward by our contemporary that after all the day of small things in this respect may truly be regarded as the day of good things. The advent in Cariboo of the Lane & Kutz Company, with their Meadow-opening and quartz-crushing machinery and capital may justly be regarded as the dawn of a new era.

By Electric Telegraph.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY BRITISH COLONIST.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Europe.

New York, Aug 30—The World's special gives a repetition of the war news already given several times concerning the probability of Russian intervention at a not distant date.

St Petersburg papers of the 23rd formally deny that the Czar has in any way recognized the conduct of the Prussian regime of which he is the nominal proprietor (?) and add that Russia reserves to herself most absolute freedom to act as her position requires in regard to the equilibrium of Europe.

The Solva journals in Austria openly denounce the progress of the Teutonic race in Central Europe, and call upon Russia to make the Austrian Government understand its mission.

The approach of hostile armies to the Belgian frontier excites great apprehension in that country. The Belgian army has been put on a war footing, by a strong vote, and ordered to the front. The arming of the Civil Guard goes on rapidly.

Two special Queen's Messengers have reached London with dispatches for the Foreign Office from Brussels.

Luxemburg and Antwerp are fully armed. It is reported that a column of 250,000 Prussian cavalry and artillery was yesterday marching on Epernay.

The Courier's special are very brief this morning. That from Merchy says the Ministers have packed up and are on the eve of departure for Tours.

London, Aug 30—The French say the district between Rheims, Metz, Sedan and Montmedy will be the scene of the next general action.

McMahon's extraordinary movement may have delayed the Crown Prince's movement on Paris, but it has made that advance at any time hereafter easy.

London papers are perfectly befogged as to the position of the contending armies, and the latest war telegrams have only made confusion worse confounded.

McMahon has failed to form a junction with Bazaine and now finds himself separated by a wedge of two powerful Prussian armies.

A French regiment of Chasseurs d'Afrique, commanded by the Marquis de Gallie, routed of two regiments of Saxon dragoons with great loss near Stenay. The Saxons, however, now hold Stenay and Mouson.

Paris, Aug 30—Nothing has been received from the front but rumors of engagements terminating favorably for the French. Some from the front insist that a great battle was fought on Sunday and resulted in immense advantages to McMahon and Bazaine, who they say expected to meet by this time.

The army of the Crown Prince has been strongly reinforced, and there is no doubt that a most important battle will take place at once. McMahon has also received strong reinforcements, the entire 12th and 13th corps, organized here, having been sent to him.

The Tribune's London special says—Our special correspondent telegraphs from Verdun at five o'clock on Monday that no news had been received there of the great battle reported to have been fought. Many Prussians are found at Mouson, Doua and Stenay and as the sound of cannonading and musketry were heard on Sunday in that direction an engagement is believed to have taken place near Bazaine.

Five hundred Prussians attacked a railway station at Chauveny which was guarded by 50 French soldiers. The fight lasted an hour during which time 7 were killed and 5 wounded. The Prussians took 28 prisoners, and burned the station.

Advices from all parts of the invaded Provinces show that the sharpshooters are becoming efficient. They capture large numbers of Prussian scouts and stragglers and repel attacks on towns and villages.

Our special correspondent telegraphing from Metz on Sunday, says, On my arrival here I found no troops except the garrison, but the Prince Imperial arrived during the day with an escort of Cote Guards. The Emperor stopped at Poitiers on the night before last and started for Leucen this morning, sending the Prince here. The Prince and escort started for another destination which I am informed is Sedan, thus proving that the Prussians have not as reported cut the railway between Metz and Sedan. We start to-morrow for Montmedy.

Paris, Aug 31—The Moniteur says positive information from Metziers affirms that a battle occurred on Saturday. Our informant saw numbers of stragglers. No official announcement of the affair has been received. A person who arrived from Strasbourg on Friday last says one part of the town suffered much. The garrison is supplied with plenty of provisions and munitions of war, and the citizens are determined to resist to the last. The Prussians are sending street locomotives to aid in placing heavy guns before Strasbourg.

Bassels, Aug 31—Bazaine is still cooped up.

The German army has been ordered to camp as far as possible from the last battlefield on account of the sickening exhalations.

Bassels, Aug 30—The investment of Lorraine by the Prussians, as reported yesterday, is denied.

McMahon's headquarters are at Sedan. It is still believed he will persevere in his attempt to reach Metz and Bazaine.

The Prussians entered Vouiseurs on the heels of the retreating French.

King William's route to Paris is by the Upper Maone and Meuse.

London, Aug 30, 1:30 p.m.—The following news from the French War Office has just been received: Ninety thousand men are in the triangle formed by the lines running from Rheims, Reptel and Vouiseur.

Bazaine is not shut up. He has 120,000 men and McMahon has 180,000. They are making two marches on the Prince Royal, who is two days march ahead of Prince Frederick Charles. It is hoped the latter will not come up in time. The Prussian are said to be 500,000 strong.

The Times says that on the 27th inst five German detachments were captured by the French cavalry near Bazaine, Department of Ardennes. The prisoners belonged to the 4th army corps, which is now overrunning the eastern department in order to prevent communication between McMahon and Bazaine.

Carlsruhe, Aug 30—The Gazette, of this city, has the following from Strasbourg last night: The Bishop of Strasbourg, actuated by a desire to stop the effusion of blood, undertook to bring about some sort of a truce or mediation. With this view he went to Linzolsheim and had an interview with Major Liezsky, Chief of the Prussian Staff. He urged that the bombardment was contrary to the laws of modern warfare, and that the inhabitants had been denied leave to withdraw from the city. The Bishop obtained 24 hours' cessation of the firing in order to give the Governor time to negotiate. The Governor was invited to come out and examine the preparations which had been made by the Prussians for continuing the siege. As Major Liezsky escorted the Bishop back to the city his flag of truce was riddled by bullets. The bombardment continues with guns of the largest calibre, and the fall of the city is merely a matter of time.

Bassels, Aug 30—Stenay is recaptured by the Prussians.

The Belgian troops left this morning for the French frontier.

London, Aug 30—Dispatches from the Prussian general headquarters, dated Sunday noon, declare that Bazaine's communications are completely cut off and that all the telegrams printed in Paris as coming from him must be manufactured.

A dispatch from Copenhagen says that two French ironclads, the Arnauld and Rochambeau, anchored this morning off Frederik Spaven, Jutland. An attack on the Baltic fortresses is expected immediately.

Fighting has taken place between the advanced forces of the two armies on the line of the railway from Montmedy to Sedan.

Berlin, Aug 30—Mingolsheim reports the first parallel opened yesterday by the South German besieging force at 700 paces from the walls of Strasbourg. At that distance a battery of 42 heavy guns opened on the city. No reply is made by the besieged either from the walls or citadel.

Luxemburg, Aug 20—Cannonading was heard this morning in the direction of Verdun.

London, Aug 30—A correspondent telegraphs from Luxembourg Tuesday noon that early that morning fighting took place between Aubum and Esch—150 Prussians being surprised by 500 French and driven back, with heavy loss on both sides.

The frontier line is strictly respected by the combatants.

There has been cannonading for five hours along the frontier.

A telegram from Carlsruhe on Tuesday says that the inhabitants who escaped from Strasbourg expect the besieged will endure dreadful suffering. Most of the people spend the nights in cellars. Potatoes are 20 francs per pound and other things in proportion. Horse flesh is the only meat. Gen Urlick declares he will not surrender until the city is a heap of ashes. One hundred and sixty pounders are placed in position. The cathedral is but little injured.

A dispatch from Berlin to the Foreign Office says that six Prussian corps of 24,000 men each have left from before Metz. The Crown Prince of Saxony is pushing forward with 110,000 men and the Crown Prince of Prussia with 130,000.

London, Aug 30—A special says that Austria is secretly arming, all the officers and soldiers on furlough are being recalled, and other warlike preparations are in progress. The object of this policy is unknown.

New York, Aug 30—Gallardo's dispatch, from Paris last night, says that McMahon's effective force is probably 200,000 men, the elite of France. Everything now is in suspense, waiting the issue which soon must be fought in Ardennes or along the Meuse. Paris is fully prepared—its calm and filled with patriotism. All her men and youth are ready to take up arms at once.

The Prussians are advancing on Paris by the Valleys of Aube and Merno. The Prince Royal's troops have turned north to meet McMahon. Peasants along the line are seriously annoying the invaders.

Athens, Aug 29—Two French war ships yesterday entered this port with a prize loaded with coal. The Greek government immediately demanded that the French vessels should leave Greek waters.

London, Aug 31—The Belgian Government denies having assented to any foreign troops crossing any portion of her soil.

There are daily conferences at the Foreign Office between the Under-Secretary and the representatives of Russia and Austria.

It is reported that the North German Envoy at St Petersburg has been instructed to ask the Russian Government for an explanation as to the movements of troops on the Polish frontier.

Paris, Aug 30—Midnight—The following is official news just promulgated by the Minister of the Interior: The march of the Prussians on Paris seems to have been arrested. McMahon continues his movements. No serious engagement yet. Chalons is evacuated entirely by the Prussians. Railway trains go freely now as far as Rheims.

The Moniteur says it has authority to-day for the story concerning armed ships sailing from American ports to prey on French commerce.

An official dispatch states that more than 20,000 carts passed into Paris on Sunday, bringing the furniture and effects of families living in the environs.

Headquarters, Department of the Ardennes, Aug 30, 4 1/2 Berlin—The French position on the heights of Vouiseurs, which was held by a body of Turcos, was taken yesterday by 2 squadrons of Prussians; the place was very strong.

The Uhlands, of the Royal Guard, last night brought in 2 staff officers of McMahon's just captured.

A Prussian vessel was captured and brought into Dunkerque.

London, Aug 31—The Standard this morning says the Prussians are strong around Rheims while immense masses of them have passed northward. It is impossible to say whether the report that the King is moving on Paris with a heavy force is true or not. It is equally doubtful that the French Ministers of War and Interior have removed from the capital.

New York, Aug 31—Private dispatches say French advances represent McMahon by his tactics has succeeded in separating his opponents and that he will commence the battle to-day with most confident hope of success.

Paris, Aug 31—The French army will assist in the defence of their country should it be necessary. There will be a most dog around Paris to check the advance of the Prussians. This will likely cause a scarcity of water in Paris for a few days. The 'Public' says McMahon is entirely free in his movements and in perfect communication with Bazaine both must be fighting the enemy by forced advance of the Prussians the Prince Royal has used up many of his men who are footsore and have to be transported in carts and thousands are left behind. Letters received to-day say the Prussians are in the departments of Seine and Aube and are overrunning the environs of Troyes and Lunow, cutting telegraphs and destroying the railways.

Numerous bands of Indians are roving in the vicinity of Tucson.

SEATTLE.—Amid the depression, in money and other business operations which has prevailed throughout the ports and towns on Puget Sound this season, the town of Seattle has been an exception from the general pressure. There—whilest other places have been suffering severely from the depression caused by the almost entire prostration of the lumber trade—prosperity seems to have kept a steady advance, and at no time in its history has it presented stronger inducements for permanent investment than at the present. The people of Seattle, although they have a strong belief that either the main or a branch line of the North Pacific Railroad will terminate in the vicinity of their town, base not their hopes on that contingency alone. Its favorable geographical position and fine harbor, with all the surrounding resources of mineral and agricultural wealth which it possesses, give a firm assurance to all who intelligently study these advantages, that Seattle, regardless of the immediate location of the railway terminus, is destined to be a place of wealth and importance. Not relying—as do nearly all other towns on the Sound—on the lumber trade alone, Seattle has one sawmill, which is a fine steam mill owned by H. L. Gesler, Esq., a man of much enterprise. This mill not only supplies all the lumber for local purposes, but occasionally ships to foreign ports. The only brewery on the Sound is here, owned by Messrs Schmieg & Brown, men who well understand the business and who turn out sufficient ale to supply the whole territory of a quality equal to any on the Pacific Coast. The town is well supplied with hotel accommodation and of a creditable character. The Occidental, by Collins & Co., is the largest and most commodious for travelers requiring rooms; but the Cosmopolitan, by Leary & Wheeler, is becoming the favorite with those who love to enjoy a good meal. In regard to schools Seattle stands at the top of the list. It has also three churches, no theatre or other permanent place of amusement except the Pacific Gardens, recently opened by Mr F. Guttenberg, who has at great cost erected a building and laid out walks and otherwise ornamented beautiful grove on the hill slope at the rear of the town which promises to be one of the chief attractions of the place. The crowning point of interest and celebrity in its press, the Tri-weekly and Weekly-Intelligencer is decidedly the best and most popular paper published in the territory, and under the able and judicious management of Mr S. L. Maxwell, its proprietor and publisher, its patrons have little to fear from the corrupting influences which are too often successfully brought to bear upon the public press.

As it should be.—We understand that arrangements have been made with the Government by which persons coming from foreign parts to compete at the approaching Agricultural Exhibition will not be troubled about Customs duties; and also, it has been arranged that the Government steamer Sir James Douglas will run upon the Exhibition, remaining here long enough to enable them to be present during the two days, and carrying both persons and articles for exhibition down and up free of any charge whatsoever. This arrangement cannot fail to exert an important influence upon the movement, and it, at the same time, affords gratifying evidence of increasing appreciation of the importance of such effort on the part of the Government. Everything would now appear to indicate that the coming Exhibition, undertaken in the first instance with so much fear and trembling, will, in point of magnitude and success, far exceed all previous ones. There is every reason to expect a very much larger attendance from Puget Sound.

FOOLISH.—The editor of the New Westminster paper devotes an entire leading article to personal abuse of ourselves because we had the 'impudence' to announce upon the published address of one of the candidates for the representation of that District. We were always under the impression that such addresses were a legitimate subject for newspaper remark; but it would seem we were mistaken. Did it not occur to our contemporary that his readers would have been better satisfied with an attempt to meet our position on the tariff question with argument? We greatly misapprehend the intelligence of the people of New Westminster if they approve of this mode of treating an important question. Viewed in the light of the official Terms of Confederation just published, the passage in the address in question must appear still more ridiculous. Better eliminate it altogether.

THE 'SPIRITUALISM AT FAULT.'—Under this heading we yesterday stated that the young man reported dead by spiritual telegraph had proved to be alive in California. The friends of the young man correct this statement. They say that he started from San Francisco on an excursion train which left that city in June for Boston, and that he has not since been heard from by them. They have telegraphed to California, but can obtain no tidings respecting him. The spirit states that he died at a place called Oakland [State not given] of a lung complaint, and that his friends will soon be apprised of the fact by letter. Considerable anxiety is naturally felt by the relatives of the young man; and should the intelligence of his demise so strangely received be confirmed by letter, spiritualism will receive many new converts in this city.

LECTURES.—Mr Murphy has, by request of several friends, adopted as the subject for his lecture 'The Irish in the Service of France.' Mr M. will glance at the earlier battles of the Celt and Frank against the Romans, and detail minutely the wars of Louis the 14th and 15th, in which the historic Irish Brigade won their fame. In his lecture he will notice the battles of Marlborough, Prince Eugene, Villeroy, Boufours and Marshal Saxe. The public may expect an interesting and logical lecture. The lecture will take place at Alhambra Hall. Admission 50 cents.

TOWNED OUT.—The Princess Royal was towed out of the harbor yesterday afternoon by the Enterprise. She will proceed to San Francisco and take a cargo of wheat to Europe.

APPEAL.—In another column will be found a card from a committee of gentlemen, French residents of this city, inviting offerings towards the relief of the families of French soldiers who may be killed or wounded in the war. This is an appeal which comes home to all, wholly unmixed with any question as to the rights and the wrongs of the war. Let us all give our mite. It will be twice blessed—blessing him who gives and him who takes.

WILD RABBITS.—Three years ago Mr M Rowland, of Burnside, turned 18 pairs of rabbits into the bush near his place. The rabbits soon became wild and their progeny have strictly obeyed the injunction to increase and multiply. Except the descendants of the lot set loose by Mr Rowland, no wild rabbits exist on the Island.

The Directors of the Agricultural and Horticultural Society will meet at New Dominion Hall, COLONIST BUILDING, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, for the transaction of business. The captains of the Sound steamers have liberally consented to bring stock intended for exhibition free of charge for freight.

The Enterprise arrived from New Westminster yesterday at 2 o'clock p.m., bringing the following passengers: Capt Cooper, Capt Good and family, Mrs Smith, Mrs Allard, Miss Munroe, Mrs Moore, Messrs Franklin, Insley, Fleming, Delver and Buckingham. No mail or news from the Upper Country.

FIRST FALL TRADE SALE.—Messrs R F Pickett & Co will hold their first fall sale of earthenware and groceries to-day, at their salesroom, 102 Yates street, adjoining the Bank of British North America. Mr R F Pickett will make his debut as a Knight of the Hammer.

THE EQUIVOCALTY.—A strange sight yesterday. For the first time since 1859, there was not a single ship of war in the harbor; and the only craft—barring the whitehall boats and plungers—was an anchor was Williams & Arthur's water-boat. Eleven years have passed since a period of such dullness was experienced as Equivocalty.

STIRRING AND DECISIVE NEWS may be looked for at any moment from the Belgian frontier. A great battle must shortly be fought in the vicinity of Montmedy, and should McMahon be used up, the Prussians will next be heard of in front of Paris. Should, however, the victory be with the French, the Prussians will find it difficult to maintain a footing on French soil.

CHICKEN SOUP.—A spring has been discovered in the vicinity of Elcho the waters of which have the flavor of chicken soup. Frank Laumeister has secured the property and is now running a soup establishment from which he anticipates large results.

AN EARLY START.—The Enterprise will sail for New Westminster at daylight. She will run up to Sumas and receive on board 100 head of beef cattle from the Hudson Bay Co's farm at Similkameen, returning here on Saturday night or early Sunday morning.

PUBLIC LANDS.—Regarding Confederation as imminent the British Columbia Government has lately declined to sell Crown Lands in large sections. An offer to purchase 8000 acres by a company of gentlemen was declined a few days ago.

NAVAL.—H. M. S. Sparrowhawk sailed yesterday morning for San Juan Island with supplies for the garrison and H. M. S. Seylla which is lying at the English Camp. The Seylla will go to Nanaimo and coal.

DISCHARGED.—Wm Middleton was brought up on remand before the Police Court yesterday on a charge of being a rogue and a vagabond, and upon examination was discharged.

LOW WATER.—The Fraser is at a very low stage and is falling rapidly. The onward experienced much difficulty in reaching Yale last trip and the Guardian advises up country merchants to forward their fall supplies without delay.

A BIG UN.—A skate was caught in the harbor, off Hospital Point, last evening, weighing 84 lbs and measuring 5 feet 8 inches in length by 4 feet 4 1/2 inches in breadth. His skate-ship lay at the Phoenix Saloon, where it attracted much attention.

BURNSIDE ROAD.—We are glad to learn that all the bad portions of that road have been macadamized, and that it is now in excellent order.—Thanks to Mr Nicholson's careful superintendence.

THE STEAMERS ALIDA AND ELIZA ANDERSON sailed for the Sound yesterday at 2 a.m. The competition between the rival boats is very keen and rates of freight and passage are merely nominal.

MR A PERLE, late of this city, has become a fixture at New Westminster, where he has established himself in a flourishing book business. We wish our late confidante a prosperous career.

COLLEGIATE SCHOOL will reopen to-day with the same staff of teachers who have successfully managed the institution in the past.

SUPPLYING WHISKY.—Gabriel Sorabarb was yesterday convicted by the Police Magistrate for selling whisky to Indians and was remanded one week for sentence.

VICTORIA CITY.—Hon Dr Helmecken and His Worship Mayor Trimble are spoken of as probable candidates for the City Representation in the next Council.

THE TOMBOLO.—Among the many other articles presented for the Tomboles on Monday next is a case of Robinson's Magic Soap—Island manufacture.

NEWS CLUBS have been formed at the towns along the Fraser, to whom telegraphic news is supplied at a low rate.

NO CLUE to the robber of Madame Maitre has been obtained. It is a pity that so audacious a villain should go unwhipped of justice.

DISTRICT NO. 2.—Mr Henry Nathan, jr, we understand, will positively stand for a seat in the Council from this district.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR is expected to arrive at New Westminster to-morrow evening.

It is rumored that the election will not be held until the latter part of October.

ST ANN'S CONVENT SCHOOL will reopen to-day.

The Monarch of the Seas.

Talk about your King Williams and your Dunderberg and Blunderberg. Bah! The turret ship Captain, commanded by Captain W. T. Burgoyne, went to sea for the first time a month or two ago. In company with the Monarch and Volage she directed her course to the Bay of Biscay, and throughout her cruise from the 16th of May to the 6th of June, experienced all kinds of weather. The Captain is the first vessel of this kind built under the direct supervision of Captain Cowper Coles, in the famous ship-building yard of Messrs. Laird, Birkenhead. The problem which Captain Coles wished to solve was, how to build a turret-ship with low free-board, which should be able to keep the ocean at all seasons, and also to fight her guns in the heaviest weather. Apparently the solution has been found in the Captain. The Monarch, which brought over the remains of Mr Peabody to America, is well known as among the most magnificent specimens of naval architecture ever produced, and in the late cruise was magnificently handled by a picked crew, familiar with and proud of their favorite ship, while it was just the reverse with the Captain. Yet both in sailing and fighting qualities the latter was generally thought superior. An "eye witness" says:—

"Upon the boisterous morning of May 30th Vice-Admiral Sir Thomas M. C. Symonds, Commander of the Channel Squadron, showed his determination to put the fighting powers of the Captain to a severe but practical test. At 9 A. M. signal was made from his flagship, the Minotaur, for the Captain to furl sail and fire her 25-ton guns with battering charges and shot. The Admiral kept close to her in the Minotaur, placing himself on her bow-quarter or beam, so as he might closely watch her behavior and firing. The ship was placed broadside on to the sea, and the guns were fired to windward, and then whirled round in every position with regard to the sea, the turret being trained by steam in all directions. Nothing could exceed the ease and precision with which the guns and turret were worked, nor was there any inconvenience experienced in the turret from the influx of water. On a prior occasion—the 25th of May—the Admiral ordered the Captain to get up steam and follow him. She was then ordered to fire at a mark, while the Minotaur lay close at hand to watch the movement of the Captain's guns and turret, and the direction of the shot. At this moment it was blowing hard, with a heavy sea, but not a whole gale. A target was dropped over board, and when 1,000 yards to windward of the Captain she commenced firing. The third 600-pounder shot demolished the target; upon which the Admiral made the signal, "Well done, Captain." [Later in the day Sir Thomas Symonds placed the Captain in every conceivable position as regards the sea, training her turrets in every direction, firing repeatedly with blank cartridges, and scrutinizing her attitudes and behaviour with watchful vigilance. At the conclusion of the day he made signal, "Tell Captain Coles I am much pleased."

The Captain and Monarch are not mere hulks to creep about the mouths of harbors, &c., but real sea-going cruisers, and are universally acknowledged to be the two most formidable ships of war afloat.

The first trip of a vessel never does it full justice. Deficiencies will be found coming to light only upon actual trial, and this was the case with the Captain. In spite, however, of all this, the trial was acknowledged by all to have been most satisfactory. A vessel that can fire six hundred pound bullets and smash with it a target at a distance of a thousand yards, and that in a gale of wind, must be a very formidable machine both for offensive and defensive warfare. In short the Captain won high laurels for herself, in the estimation of her officers and crew, as a first rate sea boat, furnished with good and comfortable accommodation, perfectly ventilated, and, finally, as the most formidable fighting machine that, in their opinion, was ever yet sent to sea.

T. N. HIBBEN & Co, having for a period of years appropriated a certain class of books for a circulating library, more for accommodation that profit, have by a fair experiment tested that in consequence of the destroyed and missing numbers issued, the result to them has been a positive loss. With thanks, they respectfully recommend to their subscribers in future to avail themselves of the better facilities offered them at the Mechanics' Institute for $1 per month.

A SIMPSON, TAILOR, begs to announce that he has commenced business in the above line on Government Street, between Fort and Broughton, and from the long experience he has had in the business in first class houses as CUTTER, respectfully solicits a share of public support.

Chemists to H. I. H. Prince Napoleon

PARIS.

These different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of Chemistry and therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their names sufficiently indicate their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France, with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been proved efficacious, either in the Hospital, or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorized by the Government. This fact must be a guarantee for the excellence of Messrs. GRIMAULT & CO.'s medicines.

Women's and Children's Diseases.

Grimault's Syrup of Iodized Horse Radish.

Patronized for more than twenty years by the Paris Physicians. Cures lymphaticism, rickets, scrofula, congestion of the glands of the neck, paleness and flabbiness of the flesh, loss of appetite, weakness of constitution, the various eruptions on the face, boils, pimples, itching, &c. It is the best remedy against the first stage of consumption, and is the most powerful depurative known.

Lillooet District.

To the Electors of Clinton and Lillooet District
GENTLEMEN,—You want a man to represent you in the Legislative Council. A good many of you have urged me to seek the representation of the District. I offer my services.

I am in favor of Confederation, because it is the policy of the Home Government, irresistible, and it will end a system that means nothing but taxation.

The people who have voted pensions to public officers for impure and services rendered to their country, have exhibited sad signs of common sense, justice and gratitude. Pensions to such public officers as ours would be evidence of extreme folly.

The chief duty of your representatives at the next meeting of the Legislative Council, will be to examine the contract we are about to make with Canada, and there are in it any conditions detrimental to the interests of this colony, to exhibit their injury and demand amendment.

I am no orator. The majority of those who try to be eloquent are merely nonsensical; they forget that this is a practical age, and that a grain of common sense is better than a ton of chaff. "I HAD RATHER SPEAK FIVE WORDS WITH MY UNDERSTANDING THAN TEN THOUSAND WORDS IN AN UNKNOWN TONGUE."

I value the friendship and goodwilling that exist between myself and the majority of the men in the District, they will be pleased to hear that I shall not solicit office as a mere politician. Friendship and goodwilling should not presume to stand between you and your duty. Elect the best man. If you elect me I promise I shall make gentlemen ashamed of having voted pensions to themselves for duties not discharged.

I have the honor to be a sincere ploughman, and your obedient servant,
GEORGE A. KELLY.
